Direct: 412-338-2227 • Email: bmatthews@gyf.com

Brad has focused his career on providing valuation and litigation support services since joining Grossman Yanak & Ford LLP in 2011. His experience includes financial statement and historical financial trend analysis, financial modeling, business risk assessment, as well as performing calculations required for the preparation of business valuations and other consulting projects.

Brad has served clients in many industries including manufacturing, professional services, financial services, engineering, construction, retail, management consulting, oil and gas, and technology. He has played a significant role in providing business valuation services for a range of purposes including gift and estate tax planning, Employee Stock Ownership Plans (ESOPs), marital dissolutions, corporate divorce/shareholder disputes, financial and tax reporting, buy/sell transactions, and general business planning. Further, his litigation support experience includes the determination of lost profits and economic damages arising from various disputes, and financial forensic analysis.

Brad graduated from the University of Pittsburgh, earning a double major in Accounting and Finance with a minor in Economics. Brad was selected to participate in Leadership Pittsburgh Inc.'s Leadership Development Initiative (LDI), a program that hones the leadership skills of high-potential young professionals. He is a graduate of LDI Class XXIV.

Brad is a certified public accountant (CPA), he has earned the Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) credential through the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and has earned the Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA) designation conferred by the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts (NACVA). Additionally, Brad has given presentations to attorneys and business professionals on a number of valuation-related topics, including: the business valuation process, the income approach, the market approach, special purpose valuations and economic damages.

In his spare time, Brad enjoys golfing, following Pittsburgh sports and spending time outside with his family. He lives in the North Hills with his wife, Alexis.
