Direct: 412-338-9315 • Email: wolstoncroft@gyf.com

Mark focuses on serving privately-held companies, employee benefit plans and not-for-profit organizations by providing effective and responsive professional services. His professional expertise includes performing audits and reviews, providing merger and acquisition services, compiling forecasted financial statements, conducting fraud investigations and delivering other specialized consulting services.

Mark has served a variety of stakeholders and ownership groups including privately-held companies, private equity investors, foreign-owned entities, trustees of multi-employer benefit plans and not-for-profit organizations across a wide range of industries.

A leader in the firm's M&A and employee benefit practice areas, Mark enjoys complex accounting and financial matters that require research, analysis and clear communication. He is committed to providing insightful, value-added services tailored for specific client needs and circumstances. He is experienced with matters such as quality of earning analyses, purchase accounting, GAAP-to-IFRS conversions, hedge accounting and accounting record reconstruction.

Mark regularly speaks at firm-sponsored seminars and is a frequent delegate at conferences hosted by Geneva Group International (GGI), a global alliance of well-established and experienced accounting, consulting and law firms.

A 2000 graduate of Grove City College, Mark is a CPA in Pennsylvania and a member of both the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants.

Outside of the office, Mark and his wife, Judi, are committed to serving and supporting charitable and faith-based organizations, including Bethany Presbyterian Church, where Mark has served as Treasurer since 2003. He also enjoys organizing a weekly evening golf league focused on professional networking. Mark and Judi are long-time residents of South Fayette Township and proud parents of four children, Ami Layne, Dean, J.J. and Millie.
