Manager, Tax Services

Direct: 412-338-9308 x-235 • Email: fronius@gyf.com

Ryan has six years of experience in public accounting. His primary responsibilities include the provision of tax compliance, planning and research services for individuals, businesses and nonprofit organizations. Ryan serves a variety of clients, including corporations, partnerships, S corporations, limited liability companies, tax-exempt nonprofit entities, and individuals.

Ryan has experience working with both publicly and privately held companies in various industries, including those operating in multiple states. He has provided services for a range of industries including manufacturing, professional services, and real estate. He often engages in special projects in a variety of areas including transaction work, acquisition planning and due diligence, stock vs. asset sale analyses, fixed asset depreciation analyses, consolidated entity matters, as well as quarterly and annual tax projections for both business and individuals.

A 2013 graduate of Geneva College, Ryan earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting, along with a second major in Business Finance. He is a certified public accountant in the state of Pennsylvania and is also a member of the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA), and the Allegheny Tax Society. He also serves as an assistant tax advisor for the Manufacturer and Business Association (formerly SMC Business Council).

Ryan is a former Division III college football player at Geneva College, where he also served as an assistant coach in his final semester. He was co-founder of the Golden Tornado Outreach, a nonprofit organization at Geneva College that raised funds for charities and the football team.

He resides in Allison Park with his wife, Laura.
