Roberta M. Ryan, CPA
Senior Manager, Assurance & Advisory Services

Direct: 412-338-9312 • Email: ryan@gyf.com

Robin has more than 25 years of experience in public accounting and has worked in multiple disciplines, including audit and assurance, tax and technology services. She focuses on providing audit services for privately-held entities and not-for-profit organizations. She has specialized expertise in matters pertaining to educational institutions and foundations and has extensive experience auditing defined benefit and define contribution plans.

In addition to her client responsibilities, Robin serves as the coordinator for Continuing Professional Education requirements for the CPAs in the firm, as well as a mentor for younger accountants at GYF.

A graduate of Grove City College, Robin earned her B.S. degree in accounting in 1983. Before joining Grossman Yanak & Ford LLP in 1991, Robin worked in the manufacturing and health care fields. Robin is a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Robin devotes significant time and professional expertise to a variety of not-for-profit organizations. She currently serves as Treasurer for the Board of Directors of Attack Theatre and the Greensburg Hempfield Area Library. She has previously served as Treasurer for Pittsburgh Urban Leadership Service Experience (PULSE) and as a member of the Board of Directors and the finance committee for Asset STEM Education (a national STEM education non-profit). Robin is also an active volunteer for the Open Your Heart Committee of the American Heart Association's Go Red for Women Initiative in Pittsburgh.

Go Red for Women, Robin and her husband, Doug, reside in Greensburg. They have two children, Julie and Joe.
