Direct: 412-224-4571 • Email: TROXELL@GYF.COM •

Megan has over 16 years of experience in public accounting. She specializes in providing audit and accounting services for privately held manufacturing, construction and oil and gas support companies, as well as nonprofit organizations. Her responsibilities also include due diligence work relating to acquisitions.

She earned her B.S. degree in accounting from Grove City College in 2003. Upon graduation, Megan joined Grossman Yanak & Ford LLP where she also completed a summer internship. She is a CPA in Pennsylvania and a member of the AICPA and PICPA.

Megan was honored by the PICPA for her contributions to the accounting profession, being named as one of four “Women to Watch” in 2020. She is also a graduate of the Leadership Development Initiative (LDI), a selective professional development program from Leadership Pittsburgh that trains young leaders to effect positive future change in the region.

Committed to community service, Megan serves as Vice Chair of the Board of Directors for George Junior Republic and is a member Strategic Planning Committee, which involves exploration of opportunities for the Organization in the face of a continually changing environment. Additionally, she serves as Treasurer on the Board of Directors of Family Guidance, and as Treasurer for Community Bible Study, Pittsburgh-West, for which she also serves on the pilot team for implementation of an online financial module, with an international reach.

Megan is also an active volunteer with her church and her children’s school. She resides in Ben Avon with her husband, Nathan, and sons, Alex and Andrew.
