Jason has over 15 years of experience in public accounting. He specializes in providing audit, review and compilation services for tax-exempt entities and non-public companies in the manufacturing, logistics and transportation industries. Jason also has experience in serving benefit plans and health insurance purchasing cooperatives.

Jason has significant experience performing pension and non-profit audits. He has served a self-insured health and welfare plan, which covers over 40,000 lives, for more than five years.

Jason earned his B.S.B.A. degree in accounting from Geneva College and he joined Grossman Yanak & Ford LLP after graduating in December 2005. He obtained his CPA license in 2009.

He is a member of the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA) and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), as well as the Pittsburgh Airport Area Chamber of Commerce.

Jason was one of 37 CPA national graduates of the AICPA Leadership Academy in 2015, in which rising leaders learn strategic planning techniques and develop personal success skills for handling complex management challenges.

He serves as the Chair of the Finance Committee at Christ United Methodist Church and serves as treasurer on both the Mighty Penguins Sled Hockey Board and Metro Pittsburgh Youth for Christ. Jason also enjoys participating in outdoor activities with his family.

Jason and his wife, Laura, live in Bethel Park with their children, Aubree, Garrett and Laine.
