Marne W. Babich, CPA, MT
Senior Manager, Tax Services

Direct: 412-325-4006 • Email: babich@gyf.com

Marne has more than 20 years of experience in public accounting. She focuses on providing tax planning, compliance and research services for closely held businesses, as well as their owners and executives.

Marne has served companies of various sizes, including those operating in multiple states and with foreign ownership. She has provided services for businesses in a wide range of industries including manufacturing, distribution, software and continuing care retirement communities.

A graduate of Miami University, Marne earned her B.S. degree in accounting and her Masters of Taxation from the University of Akron. Before joining Grossman Yanak & Ford LLP in 2021, Marne provided tax services at a regional public accounting firm in Cleveland, Ohio, and at a national public accounting firm in Pittsburgh.

A CPA in Ohio and Pennsylvania, Marne is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). She also is a member of the Washington County Manufacturers Association and the Pittsburgh chapter of the National Tooling & Machining Association (NTMA). Additionally, Marne serves on the advisory board of the Allegheny YMCA.

Marne is part of the 2020-2021 class of Leadership Washington County (LWC), an intense program for a select group of individuals from diverse backgrounds. Through LWC participation, professionals strengthen their network of contacts and actively engage in relevant issues.

She resides in Washington County with her husband, Jim, and their son, James.
