Erika F. Tallerico, CPA

Director, Assurance & Advisory Services

Direct: 412-799-6124 • Email: tallerico@gyf.com

Erika has 18 years of experience in public accounting. She provides assurance services to a wide range of clients, including manufacturing, real estate, technology and not-for-profit entities. Her expertise also includes benefit plan audit services and merger and acquisition consulting work.

Graduating summa cum laude from Grove City College, Erika earned her B.S. degree in accounting in 2006. Erika is a certified public accountant in the state of Pennsylvania, and is a member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants.

Erika is a graduate of the Leadership Development Initiative, a Leadership Pittsburgh, Inc. program for high-potential young professionals. She previously served for several years as Treasurer on the Board of Directors of Three Rivers Young Peoples Orchestras and was also Treasurer on the Board of Directors of Harvest Bridge, a nonprofit with the mission of equipping indigenous organizations in South Asia to serve more effectively. She currently serves on the Advisory Board to the Three Rivers Arts Festival of the Pittsburgh Cultural Trust.

Erika resides in Ben Avon with her husband, Michael, and their children, Anthony and Emma. She is an ardent supporter of arts and culture, an avid traveler and a devoted Pittsburgh sports fan.
