Richard E. Dynoske, CPA
Director, Tax Services

Direct: 412-338-9314 • Email: dynoske@gyf.com

Rick has practiced in the public accounting arena for 30 years. He has significant experience in tax planning and compliance matters for both publicly and privately held companies. Rick also has expertise handling consolidated tax return issues.

The breadth of his involvement encompasses the development and implementation of innovative corporate and business tax planning strategies, as well as the application of personal financial planning strategies to minimize the overall effect of income, excise, sales and estate and gift taxes.

Rick graduated from Penn State University in 1991 with a degree in Accounting. He worked for a financial services firm in Pittsburgh before joining Grossman Yanak & Ford LLP in 1995. Rick has earned a Certificate of Educational Achievement for Tax Planning and Advising for Closely Held Businesses from the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

A CPA in Pennsylvania, Rick is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA).

Rick resides in Plum with his wife, Joyce. They have two adult children, Amanda and Joseph.
