Ryan A. Fronius, CPA
Senior Manager, Tax Services

Direct: 412-714-5314 • Email: fronius@gyf.com

Ryan has 10 years of experience in public accounting. His primary responsibilities include providing tax compliance, planning and research services for individuals and businesses. Ryan serves a variety of tax clients, including corporations, partnerships, S corporations, limited liability companies and individual taxpayers.

Ryan has experience working with both publicly and privately held companies, including those operating in multiple states. He provides services for businesses in a wide range of industries including manufacturing, distribution, professional services and real estate. Ryan often engages in special projects in a variety of areas including transaction work, acquisition planning and due diligence, stock vs. asset sale analyses, and partnership allocations, as well as quarterly and annual tax projections for both business and individuals.

A 2013 graduate of Geneva College, Ryan earned his Bachelor's degree in Accounting, with a dual major in Business Finance. He is also a graduate of the Leadership Development Initiative (LDI Class XXIX), a program of Leadership Pittsburgh Inc. that hones the leadership skills of high-potential young professionals.

Ryan is a certified public accountant (CPA) in the State of Pennsylvania and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA), and the Allegheny Tax Society. He also serves on the Board of Directors of Anchorpoint Counseling Ministry.

Ryan was a Division III football player at Geneva College, where he also served as an assistant coach in his final semester. He was co-founder of the Golden Tornado Outreach, a nonprofit organization at Geneva College that raised funds for charities and the football team.

He resides in Allison Park with his wife, Laura, and their son, Elijah. Outside of the office, Ryan enjoys hunting, working out, snowboarding, golfing and spending time with his family.
