Brad W. Matthews, CPA/ABV, CVA

Senior Manager, Business Valuation & Litigation Support Services

Direct: 412-338-2227 • Email: bmatthews@gyf.com

Brad has focused his career on providing business valuation and appraisal services as well as litigation support services in disputes. Since joining GYF in 2011, Brad has served clients in many industries including manufacturing, professional services, financial services, engineering, construction, logistics and transportation, retail, management consulting, healthcare, oil and gas, and technology.

He has played a significant role in providing business valuation services for a range of purposes, which include: gift and estate tax planning for taxpayers and estates; the formation of or annual administrative valuations related to Employee Stock Ownership Plans (ESOPs); shareholder disputes and resolutions; marital dissolutions; financial and tax reporting, buy/sell transactions and consulting; and general business planning. Further, his litigation support experience includes the determination of lost profits and economic damages arising from various disputes, financial forensic analysis; and lost value determinations.

Brad graduated from the University of Pittsburgh, earning a double major in Accounting and Finance with a minor in Economics. He was selected to participate in Leadership Pittsburgh Inc.'s Leadership Development Initiative (LDI Class XXIV), a program that hones the leadership skills of high-potential young professionals. Brad was recognized by the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts (NACVA) as a "40 under 40" honoree in 2021.

A certified public accountant (CPA), Brad has earned the Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) credential through the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), and the Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA) designation conferred by NACVA. Additionally, Brad has given presentations to attorneys and business professionals on a number of valuation-related topics, including: valuation of ESOPs, estate planning perspectives, buy-sell agreements, the business valuation process, analyzing financial statements' impact on value, valuation during uncertain times, corporate divorce/shareholder disputes, special purpose valuations, shareholder oppression, effective use of financial experts and economic damages.

When not at work, Brad enjoys spending time outdoors with his family, golfing, and following Pittsburgh sports. He lives in the North Hills with his wife, Alexis, and their son, Blake.
