Austin M. Everett, CPA

Manager, Assurance & Advisory Services

Direct: 412-763-1164 • Email: aeverett@gyf.com

Austin has served and worked in the Assurance & Advisory Group since 2018. His dedication to understand businesses and processes has equipped him in becoming particularly proficient in the approach and set up of new audit service opportunities. His relational disposition drives his excellent client service.

Austin serves clients in a variety of industries, including manufacturing, technology, and not-for-profit entities, among others. In addition to client service, he assists in the firm's technology initiatives, which has included leading the evaluation and implementation of Inflo, a digital audit tool that significantly enhanced client experience and audit efficiency through streamlining and strengthening the audit collaboration process.

Austin graduated from Grove City College with the highest honors in 2018. He obtained his CPA license in 2019 and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA).

Austin is deeply committed to the thriving of people and communities. He actively serves as Board Treasurer of Harvest Bridge and Assistant Treasurer & Finance Committee Member at the Church of the Ascension. Out of his commitment to contributing to the thriving of his community, Austin is a 2023 cohort graduate of the Pittsburgh Foundation's New Philanthropic Leaders initiative and a member of the PICPA's Not-For-Profit Thought Leadership Committee.

Austin is driven by a desire to be fully present in all facets of life. In addition to his professional activities, he most enjoys playing the banjo, cross-disciplinary reading, climbing, and participating in the life of his community, including his church and family. He resides in Ben Avon with his wife, Joy, and daughter, Eden.
