Morgan joined GYF in 2021 and specializes in tax compliance, planning, and research services for privately held businesses and high-net-worth individuals. She advises corporations, partnerships, S corporations, limited liability companies, and individual taxpayers on complex tax matters, helping them navigate today's ever-changing tax landscape with confidence. Morgan takes a proactive approach to planning, developing and implementing strategies that promote tax efficiency and support both current and long-term objectives.

Morgan provides tax services to clients across a wide range of industries, including manufacturing, distribution, professional services, and real estate. She regularly assists clients with a variety of state tax issues, fixed asset depreciation analyses, partnership allocations, and quarterly and annual tax projections for both business and individual clients.

A graduate of Duquesne University, Morgan earned her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting in 2020, followed by her Master of Science in Accountancy in 2021.

Morgan is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in the state of Pennsylvania and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA).

Morgan resides in Pittsburgh's Strip District and enjoys exploring the city's neighborhoods, restaurants, and local businesses. Outside work, she stays active through Peloton rides, biking the city's trails, and reading.
