Direct: 412-224-4571 • Email: TROXELL@GYF.COM •

Megan has over 20 years of experience in public accounting. She specializes in providing audit and accounting services for privately held manufacturing and construction companies, as well as nonprofit organizations.

Following her graduation from Grove City College, Megan joined GYF in 2003. She is a CPA in the State of Pennsylvania and was honored by the PICPA for her contributions to the accounting profession, being named as one of four “Women to Watch” in 2020. Megan is an active member of the PICPA, including previously serving as a member of the PICPA Council.

Megan was a member of the 2022 Cohort of New Philanthropic Leaders, a Program of the Pittsburgh Foundation, and is a graduate of the Leadership Development Initiative (LDI), a selective Leadership Pittsburgh program that trains young professional leaders to effect positive future change in the region. Committed to community service, Megan volunteers for several not-for-profit organizations and is an active supporter of her children's schools and other activities.

She is Chair of the Board of Directors for George Junior Republic and Affiliates and Chair of the Finance & Audit Committee. Megan also serves on the Board of Directors of Family Guidance and is a participant on community advisory committees for UPMC and CCO (Coalition for Christian Outreach).

Megan mentors many younger associates in the firm, in addition to her role overseeing GYF's partnership with Pittsburgh Fellows. She also serves as an alumni mentor as part of Grove City College Mentor Connect.

She resides in Ben Avon with her husband, Nathan, and sons, Alex and Andrew.
